

ANDREW BOURNE & CO

The Sign of Quality Insurance

Insuring the backbone of the British economy

SME insurance from Andrew Bourne & Co

More than half of all people employed in the UK work in what the Department of Trade and Industry class as SMEs – small/medium enterprises. There are around 4 million such businesses in the UK and whilst insurance might not be at the forefront of their minds, it's every bit as vital as their staff, products and even customers.

That's because having the right type and level of insurance is absolutely vital to the long term success of every SME. There are certain types of insurance that by law you must have, and there are some types without which you would probably not be able to sleep at night.

Andrew Bourne & Co is here to help make sure that you don't end up with either more cover than you require, or the wrong type of cover. We're here to offer you guidance on what you need from the bewildering array of policies on offer. Because this sector is one of the most heavily targeted by insurance companies, it's all too easy to make the wrong decisions. We can help guide you through the range of policy options available, ranging from what is known as a 'package' which has standardised in built covers, to the more traditional 'combined' policy where covers are tailored to suit the specific needs of the business.

We can arrange cover for your business in all of these areas:

- Class of business
- Cover requirements
- Premises
- Security
- Health & safety support
- Claims management
- Risk management

Let us take care of your insurance so you can take care of business.
